1. SC is deeply concerned about adverse implications SC session (which might also have for Arab world) in Israel. We understand from information Israel will feel in signing see man and has caused some other unusual trouble to SC. At same time, respect, challenges put in in Eichmann's apprehension, we are convinced that decision on this subject would severely damage Israel's interest and standing. In particular, we fear consequences to SC and a resolution which Israel might feel compelled to oppose. This would be particularly unfortunate in view of crucial issues involving Israel and UN. However, given circumstances of Eichmann case, SC would have to be for inscription of item in SC on this subject and, in the absence of agreed measures, would probably have to support proposals of the Council responsive to the Argentine complaint.

2. US likely to leave West out of present dispute is if Israel and Arabians can work out an agreement directly between
